At HYDE boarding schools, academics is only part of what we teach.

Only at HYDE do today's kids get the tools they need to prosper and grow in this challenging world. That's because our approach to education is entirely different. Our focus is on helping kids reveal their character and develop the confidence they need. And the way we teach is different, too. We involve parents and the entire school community in the discovery process. As a result, HYDE kids and families are uniquely prepared to navigate the tough choices they face in everyday life.

The lifelong journey of realizing your unique potential begins at HYDE...guaranteed.
